Over two weeks in literacy we've been discussing about Macbeth by doing drama, descriptive writing and doing a radio/ television news report about King Duncan's death. For a couple of days we were doing King Duncan's death and we have been interviewing Macbeth, Lady Macbeth and Macduff. The King was found with multiple stab wounds to the chest also we have been trying to figure out who did it.

In our horrible histories topic we have been drawing portraits of a significant person in our area of history, and thinking of different ways to present interesting facts. In my group, me, Justin, Harris, Arthur and Ella-Mae have presented our area of history in: Fact cards, an information box and a prezzi. My group is doing Romans and I am really enjoying it so far. My group and I are working well together just like I expected.

Literacy Macbeth

Posted on February 22, 2018 by birdwellyear6 Standard Respond

For the past few weeks we have been reading the play Macbeth. We have done a couple different tasks on Macbeth but my favourite was the first one when we acted out the first three parts of the play. We are only half way through too. At the moment we are writing up the scripts for our News reports about King Duncan's death. I'm in a group with Seth, Holly and Katie. Earlier on we got to question the three main suspects. It was so funny. I'm currently the journalist who interviewed Macbeth, Holly was the one who interviewed Lady Macbeth, Seth was the one who interviewed Macduff and Katie is the host! I can't wait to do more and get on to filming!

We have being doing work and reading the book over Macbeth by William Shakespeare. First we did a little bit of acting then we wrote a diary entry about when Macbeth met the witches with Banquo, and right now, we are going to do a radio report about King Duncan's death and we don't know who killed him but some people from the drama club know (including me).
