UPDATE ON OUR FROZEN WEEK!

Posted on January 29, 2018 by birdwellmrsbruck under Uncategorized

AFTER WE PLACED OUR OBJECTS IN THE FREEZER, WE THEN FROZE THEM! WE HAD lots of conversations all about how the water changed from a liquid to a solid. We used our cups for estimating in our number work, then we counted accurately how many objects were in!

Take a look at our freeze pots!

THIS WEEK WE ARE LEARNING ALL ABOUT THE FREEZING PROCESS! WE ARE USING objects frozen in water to use for maths and literacy lessons! Here are the objects we are going to freeze to then estimate how many pieces are in the ice!

Follow the journey with us on our blog, we will be updating daily throughout the week.
